Step aboard, settle into your stateroom or suite and enjoy a traditional Devonshire tea as Australian Star gets underway. The first afternoon is deliberately unhurried - take in the river red gum-lined banks, meet your fellow travellers, relax in the Hopwood Lounge & Bar, or visit the wheelhouse and chat with the Captain as the river journey begins.

As afternoon turns to evening, enjoy a drink in the Hopwood Lounge & Bar while the changing light brings the riverbank to life. Keep watch for kangaroos and native birdlife emerging in the surrounding bush.

First settled by James Maiden in 1843, the station later became a filming location for the celebrated Australian television series 'All the Rivers Run'.

Move ashore for an exclusive visit to Murray Gums Estate. Meet the owners and discover their boutique wines and award-winning olive oils before sitting down to a gourmet lunch showcasing regional produce, accompanied by estate-grown wine and olive oil tastings.

Back at Perricoota Station, join your Captain for a guided walk through the beautifully restored buildings and riverside grounds, discovering more of the property's history and its connection to the Murray.

Following the tour, enjoy free time to explore the historic Port of Echuca precinct at your own pace. Wander through its heritage streets and buildings, visit local museums and attractions, browse the shops and galleries, or simply relax at one of the precinct's cafes.
